Dispatcher Saves Life

Prineville, Oregon

Location: 400 NE 3rd Street, Prineville, Oregon

On July 30th, 2010 Prineville Police 911/Communications Officer Kim Kibble received an emergency call regarding an elderly woman who had stopped breathing. Relying on training she had received at the Police Department, she immediately began to use her "Emergency Medical Dispatch" skills and instructed the caller specifically how to perform CPR over the phone. As a result of her actions and the actions of the caller the woman was successfully resuscitated. The family later called and thanked Officer Kibble for her actions.
