Bomb Threat at Crook County Mental Health

Prineville, Oregon

Location: 365 NE Court St, Prineville, Oregon.

On 12-19-2008 at about 10:47 AM, the Prineville Police Department received a report of a bomb threat telephoned into the Crook County Mental Health building in Prineville. As a precaution, the building and some surrounding businesses were evacuated and some streets have been closed.

Officers are restricting public movement in the affected area and officers are conducting a through search of the building with the assistance of Explosive Ordinance Demolition experts. The investigation is on-going and as the situation develops further information, will be released as it becomes available. The Prineville Police Department is being assisted by the Oregon State Police, Crook County Sheriff's Office and Portland Police Bureau.
