Development Tour (4:00 p.m.)

Development Tour:

In lieu of a traditional meeting the City of Prineville Planning Commission met on October 6th at 4:00 p.m. for a brief tour conducted by staff, of various developments happening within the City. There were no new developments being discussed and no decisions were made.

The tour started on the grade in the Baldwin Industrial Park to view the data centers and some industrial developments. We then went to 9th street to talk about the redesign of the BLM facility. From there the tour went to the Ochoco Pointe Subdivision to highlight residential development in the area. After that we went over to the Ironhorse development to see the progress on the Ironhorse Lodge and then made stops at the Taco Bell development, the Ochoco Mill Lumber site and the new veterinarian clinic.
