

RESOLUTION NO. 640

WHEREAS, The Statewide Planning Goals and ORS 197 require a Citizens Involvement Advisory Committee for Planning; and

WHEREAS, The governing bodies of Crook County and the City of Prineville have a joint agreement Establishing a Citizens Involvement Advisory Committee for Planning; and

WHEREAS, The members of the City Planning Commission live in various areas of the City and represent various business and professional interests; and

WHEREAS, The joint Planning Staff has had major reductions in personnel and elimination of full time citizen involvement coordinator.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing it is hereby resolved as follows;

Section I:

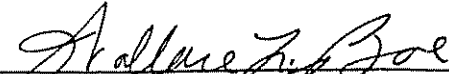

The City of Prineville designates the City Planning Commission to be responsible for fulfilling the Citizen Involvement requirements during and subsequent to the mandated periodic review order pursuant to ORS Chap 197

Section II:

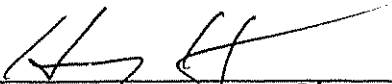

The City of Prineville in conjunction with Crook County Court intends to amend the Citizen Involvement Section of the joint Comprehensive Plan to reflect both Planning Commissions as responsible for the Citizen Involvement Program.

Passed by the City Council this 22nd day of April, 1986.

Approved by the Mayor this 22nd day of April, 1986.
